

MICHAEL AND ANNE GREENWOOD
SCHOOL OF MUSIC
 College of Arts and Sciences

You will have an impact with a degree in Music Performance

SHAPE THE DIRECTION with a degree in Music Performance!
BRING the arts to life!
FORGE your musical presence

	FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR	FOURTH YEAR+
Your Courses	Begin your foundations in music theory, piano skills, and performance study while also completing some general education requirements.	Continue general education courses while expanding your knowledge in music theory and performance. Also, begin your studies in music history.	Refine your knowledge in music theory and performance.	Further your knowledge in pedagogy and music literature, complete remaining coursework, and prepare for graduation!
Your Experience	Engage in individualized private instruction with our renowned music faculty.	Work with world-class guest artists in master classes and workshops.	Prepare and present a junior recital.	Prepare and present a senior recital.
Your Community	Join student social and service organizations in music and participate in community music ensembles.	Connect with OSU music alumni and begin networking in the world of professional musicians.	Take on leadership roles in applied studios, ensembles, and organizations.	Attend regional and national music conferences to increase your networking contacts and experiences.
Your Career Readiness	Evaluate and begin to build your practice and performance techniques.	Expand your pedagogical knowledge and begin competing in solo/ensemble competitions .	Begin preparing recordings for audition materials and continue participating in competitions.	Work with faculty to prepare your CV and application materials for professional positions and/or graduate school auditions.
Your Personalized Path		Pursue an instrumental, vocal, or jazz emphasis. Consider a second major or minor in psychology, jazz, or music industry.

YOU WILL LEARN

How to expand your musical skills and techniques
 How to perform and collaborate with others.
 Information about a vast scope of musical repertoire from diverse cultures.
 How to prepare for performances and professional auditions

WHAT IS NEXT

Work in fields like:
 Military Bands, Professional Orchestras, Opera Companies, Higher Education, Church Music

Graduate school in:
 Music Performance, Music Education, Conducting, Music Therapy

Learn more about building your custom path, visit:
music.okstate.edu

