

DEPARTMENT OF
THEATRE
College of Arts and Sciences

Set the stage for excellence with a degree in Theatre

HONE YOUR CREATIVE EXPRESSION & communication prowess.
Use INNOVATIVE THINKING to make impactful contributions
CULTIVATE resilience, adaptability, and cultural awareness

	FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR	FOURTH YEAR+
Your Courses	Take Gen Eds and introductory course, e.g. TH 1323, 1500, 1663, 1673, 2563	Continue Gen Eds, languages, and intermediate theatre courses, e.g. TH 1333 TH 1500, 2500, 2833 or 3853, 3633	Continue Gen Eds, Begin History of Theatre Sequence , and take electives of interest, e.g. TH 3500, 4753	Complete GEN EDS, History of Theatre Sequence , and Theatre Electives
Your Experience	Learn emotional expressiveness, technical awareness, critical analysis, and problem-solving skills through theatrical productions .	Learn to communicate clearly with production teams & build trust, cooperation & networking skills in theatre.	Learn research skills , attention to detail & production coordination in theatre that intersects with other disciplines.	Courses offer experiential learning outcomes like real-world exposure , portfolio development, reflection, & adaptability.
Your Community	Join TCO, Alpha Psi, or USITT to connect with the local community through live theatre performances and entertainment opportunities.	Collaborate with performance companies and connect with schools, community groups, and local businesses to get involved with the artistic community.	Actively pursue leadership roles within theatrical production teams, seek out internships, and explore study abroad opportunities.	Opportunities to connect, learn, and showcase your talents through industry auditions, workshops, conferences, and public events.
Your Career Readiness	Learn foundational acting techniques , theory, teamwork, and communication while gaining an appreciation of theatre production and technical basics.	Improve theatre skills with character and script analysis, gain production experience, networking, cultural awareness, and collaboration skills.	Gain expertise and career readiness through training, internships, and leadership roles in productions.	Cultivate life skills for the arts , audition and showcase skills, develop portfolios, and prepare for career transition or graduate studies.

YOU WILL LEARN

Develop emotional expressiveness, communication & problem-solving skills. Build trust & networking skills. Research techniques, attention to detail & production coordination. Life skills for arts & career prep emphasized.

WHAT IS NEXT

Work in Fields like: Theatre, Film, Marketing, industrial design, event management, education

Enter professional school, such as: Master of Fine Arts, Education, Business, Law.

Your Personalized Path Consider 1 of 3 emphases. Seek a 2nd major or minor in Arts administration, education, or Dance.

Learn more about building your custom path, visit:
theatre.okstate.edu

