MICHAEL HARDT
ANTONIO NEGRI

This is not a manifesto. Manifestos call for a world to come and also call for a world to be destroyed, although now only a specter of change. Manifestos are agents of change. Manifestos are made by the power of their vision. Michael Hardt & Antonio Negri move beyond making manifestos and prophesies. They have already Antonio Negri the squares, not only threatening but conjuring visions of a new world. The multitudes, through their slogans and desires, have declared their declaration become the world and sustainable society? How can we guide us in reinventing how we live in the world? In their rebellion, the passage from declaration to
