Isabella Trevino (Applied Flute Faculty)

Isabella Trevino is an instrumental music education major at Oklahoma State University. Originally from McKinney, Texas, Isabella has been playing the flute for 9 years. She has played in various ensembles throughout her journey playing the flute. Before starting her degree, Isabella had played in multiple All-Region Band and Orchestras in the North Texas area and was an All-State Musician in 2022. She currently performs with the Oklahoma State Wind Ensemble, the Symphony Orchestra, and the Flute Ensemble. Isabella continues to expand her knowledge of music education by teaching lessons to young flutists and working as a camp counselor for the Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival. Outside of playing her flute, Isabella loves reading, hiking, and watching movies.
