Many Thanks

The Michael and Anne Greenwood School of Music and the OSU Friends of Music organization gratefully acknowledge the commitment and generosity of individuals, corporations, foundations, and government agencies that support our mission. Because of the investment of our loyal donors, the Greenwood School of Music is a thriving music program and many students are the beneficiaries of life-changing scholarships. Thank you!

We encourage you to get involved. There exists continued need for student scholarships, student and faculty travel support, and facilities. Please contact us for more information at 405-385-0701.

Join us today, and together we can continue providing inspiration and joy to the OSU campus and greater Stillwater community through music performance and education.

Danny Brock comes to the Oklahoma State University Greenwood School of Music as its Visiting Assistant Professor of Band. He most recently held the position of Assistant Director of Bands at Independence High School in Frisco, TX while serving as a member of the Professional Learning Community and Strategic Planning Committees for Frisco ISD. He is completing a second Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA) in Wind Conducting at the University of North Texas after graduating with his first DMA in Trumpet Performance from the same institution. Danny assists the Cowboy Marching Band with over a decade of knowledge and experience in the marching arts as an instructor and performer of multiple world class drum corps. He also served as president and soprano cornet of the Dallas Brass Band and founded the Dallas Youth Brass Band Middle and High School ensembles to foster a passion for musical excellence and a lifelong appreciation for brass band among the youth brass and percussion musicians of Dallas-Fort Worth.

Allan F. Goodwin is in his 31st year of teaching and the second year serving Oklahoma State University as the Associate Director of Bands, Director of Athletic Bands, and music arranger for the Cowboy Marching Band, in addition to teaching courses in instrumental conducting and secondary instrumental rehearsal techniques.

Prof. Goodwin previously held the position of Associate Director of Bands, Director of Athletic Bands and professor of conducting, wind band repertoire and administration, and secondary instrumental music education at Texas A&M University-Commerce (now East Texas A&M). Previous positions include a decade as Director of Bands at Sachse High School in the DFW area, Director of Bands and Coordinator of Instrumental Music in Ponca City, OK, and several instructional positions in the drum and bugle corps activity. He is also the founder and immediate past director and curriculum coordinator for the Marching Arts Director Symposium, a summer workshop for high school band directors from around the country, which offers hands-on instructional sessions and masterclasses with industry leaders in the marching and pageantry arts.

His principal teachers include Robert Winslow, Dennis Fisher, Gerald Siverson, Kenneth G. Grass and Wayne Downey. He has collaborated and hosted symposia and honor band events with conductors including Frederick Fennell, Ray Cramer, Gary Green, Alan McMurray, Craig Kirchhoff, Steven Davis, Kevin Sedatole, Emily Threinen, Paula Crider, Richard Floyd, and Jack Delaney (among others), and has collaborated with composers including, but not limited to, Michael Daugherty, James Syler, Steven Bryant, Paul Dooley, James Stephenson, Michael Markowski, Jim Bonney, Julie Giroux, Nathan Daughtrey, and John Mackey.

Prof. Goodwin is active as an arranger, program coordinator, clinician, consultant, and adjudicator for marching bands throughout the Southwest, is in demand as a clinician with public school concert ensembles across the state and frequently serves as an honor band conductor and teacher staff development speaker. He is a member of the College Band Directors National Association, the Oklahoma Music Educators Association, the Texas Music Educators Association, and is an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.
