Dr. Bradley Geneviro is Director of Bands, Professor of Conducting and Associate Director of the Greenwood School of Music at Oklahoma State University. In his duties at Oklahoma State, Dr. Geneviro oversees all aspects of the Band Area. Prior to his appointment at OSU, he has served on the faculties of the University of Texas at El Paso, Messiah University, and the University of North Texas. Ensembles, under Dr. Geneviro's leadership, have performed multiple times at state, national and international conventions. In addition, his groups have recordings released under both the Mark Custom and Klavier Record labels. His recordings have been reviewed in Fanfare Magazine with the following comments: "A superb disc", "a magnificent statement of the highest professionalism possible from student ensembles."

Dr. Geneviro maintains a very active schedule as a clinician, adjudicator, guest conductor and recording producer having worked across the US, Australia, Europe, Hong Kong, and mainland China. As a recording producer, he has worked with groups such as the University of North Texas Wind Symphony, United States Air Force Band, Keystone Wind Ensemble, the Sydney Conservatorium Wind Symphony, and a variety of other professional and university ensembles.

Dr. Geneviro holds professional memberships in Oklahoma Music Educators Association, Oklahoma Bandmasters Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, National Association for Music Education, Phi Beta Mu, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Pi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, College Band Directors National Association and was elected to the prestigious American Bandmasters Association.
