“

My time as an Art major has taught me to be more confident in myself, in my abilities, and persevere in the face of obstacles.

- Jordan Richards, Graphic Design Major

The influence of fine arts, design and art history has never been greater than it is today, and the Department of Art, Graphic Design and Art History at Oklahoma State University is dedicated to excellence in all forms of art creation, research and education. As an art major, you will learn from professionally active faculty in small classes that guarantee individual mentorship. Our faculty exhibit nationally and internationally and produce scholarly work which is consistently cited for its excellence. They are dedicated teachers, who always seek to improve educational and professional opportunities for their students. You will have unique opportunities to experience art, design, and art history through exhibits.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Art History - Gain comprehensive insight into human cultural development that integrates rigorous analysis with creativity and interpretive thought.

Graphic Design - Learn the range and purpose of the Graphic Design discipline, and what constitutes effective design. Graduating students portfolio work includes a variety of media from graphic, motion, and interaction design.

Studio Art - Explore a broad base of fundamental studio experiences at the foundation level and develop a firm grasp of historical and contemporary trends in the visual arts. Areas of study: Drawing/Painting, Printmaking, Photography, Sculpture, Ceramics and Jewelry/Metals.
