

The Department of Sociology at Oklahoma State University's

O.D. Duncan Award

The O.D. Duncan Award was established in the name of O.D. Duncan, who established the Department of Sociology and Rural Life in 1936 at Oklahoma A&S (OSU). He was chairman of the department until his retirement in 1963. This was set up as a scholarship, but funding dwindled, and the department decided to continue this as recognition of an outstanding student.

One undergraduate student is awarded each year and the student must:

- 1.) Major in one of the majors under the Department of Sociology
- 2.) Have a 3.5 gpa or higher
- 3.) Preference given to seniors
